

Share Your MyWhy Story!

A Certified Rehabilitation Counselor and/or a Certified Vocational Evaluator Specialist is more than a job or a passion. It's a journey—making meaningful contributions to the lives of individuals with disabilities.

CRCC is accepting short video or written testimonials from CRCs and CVEs.

Your stories will play a pivotal role in inspiring and educating current and future CRCs and CVEs.

Your stories can help individuals with disabilities and their families understand the role of a CRC and/or CVE, and the qualified services you provide.

Your stories may even persuade employers in your community to work with CRCs.

CRCC wants to heighten public awareness of the crucial profession of rehabilitation counseling and Your stories will highlight the inspiring contributions you make while serving individuals with disabilities.

Share your stories and help promote the profession! CRCC wants to hear why you do what you do. Here's how!

Submission Details:

- A video submission should be 60 seconds or less
- Acceptable video formats are .mov and .mp4
- A video submission should be recorded in landscape (widescreen) mode
- Written testimonials must be 500 characters or less.
- All submissions must include a JPG picture of yourself
- Submissions may be emailed to marketing@crccertification.com

Staying connected is more important than ever these days. Please follow us on Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter to ensure you are getting the most up-to-date information and news from CRCC.

Thanks again for all you do. We look forward to receiving your videos and testimonials!

Regards,

Pam Shlemon
Executive Director